Who wrote the scheme?

Ruth Miskin is one of the UK's leading authorities on teaching children to read. An experienced former head teacher and trainer, she has over 25 years' teaching experience.

What is different?

Read Write Inc. Spelling is a spelling programme based on proven strategies of teacher modelling followed by partner work, to embed learning. The programme covers all the word structures and spelling requirements for Years 2–6.

It is:

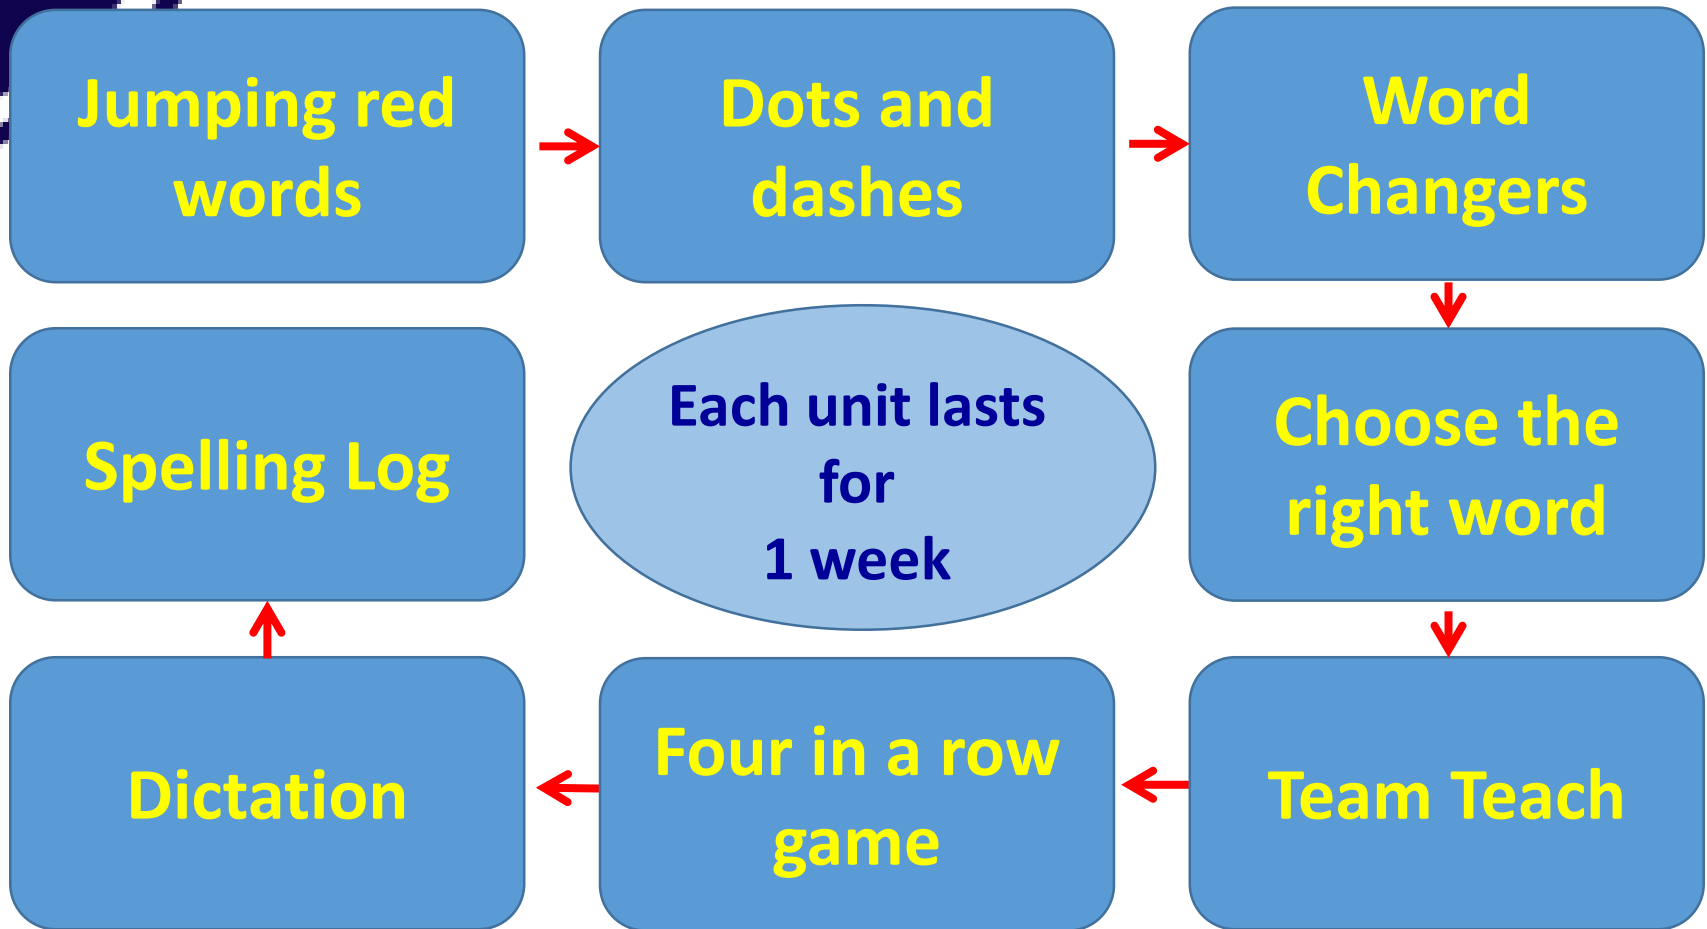

- Built around a series of short, progressive activities
- Uses partner work to help children learn effectively and recall what they have learnt

What will the children experience in their lessons?

For each unit, there is:

Unit 1 – 'or' spelt a before l and ll

Dot and dashes

all small tall wall

ball also almost call

always

Words to log and learn

Dictation

I am tall but you are taller.

We can walk while we talk.

Four-in-a-row

Can you get 4 spellings right?
They all contain the spelling rule for the week.

Team teach

Small, all, call, ball, fall

Each person takes it in turns to test the rest of the table on the spellings for the week.

Jumping red words

Learning high frequency words

Would, could, should

Out of the box, into my head, onto the wall

Homework

Every half term the children learn some 'Red Words' and the focus sound for the units.
